General Synopsis for Episode #1115B

This Best Rescues episode features SEAACA Animal Control Officers rescuing animals in the community who are lost, injured, abused, abandoned and/or homeless. Officer Barajas rescues a poodle that has been found in a backyard. She approaches the scared dog slowly, letting the dog smell her and then petting the dog to calm it down. Officer Robinson picks up a litter of kittens to be placed in foster care to be fed and cared for until they are big enough to be vaccinated and placed up for adoption. Officer Barajas responds to an abandon dog in a stroller left near SEAACA. Officer Soriano retrieves a friendly a cat in a vending machine. Officer Muro saves a Terrier and four puppies left at an apartment building. Officer Trujillo responds to an emergency call for a challenging capture of a boxer who is running in and out of traffic. Animals are brought back to South East Area Animal Control Authority (SEAACA) to be scanned to see if they have a microchip so they can be returned to their owners. The animals are logged, documented and photographed so the owner(s) can go online to find their lost pets or are put up for adoption.
