Laura Kellman – Scientist
Maxim Knight – Literacy Advocate

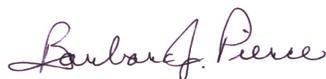

General Synopsis for Episode #914

In this episode, committed and talented ‘Young Icons’ share their stories of dedication and success. The guests open up the personal side of their journey and what made them decide to pursue their goals. Leoya Sanford started telling jokes at the age of 4. In four years, she has become a professional comedian performing at the Improv, the Comedy Store and Laugh Factory. She uses her comedy to address issues that kids deal with every day. She states, “It’s all about giving back to the community and making people happy”. Fifteen-year-old Alex Mendoza entered a DJ competition and realized he enjoyed ‘turntable mixing and scratching’. He turned to a mentor to perfect his DJ skills and now is known as DJ Chubz. He is able to live his dream through his determination and talent. High school senior Laura Kellman developed the love of science through her parents. She is a busy gifted eighteen year old who works in a lab at UCLA on a research project relating to Alzheimer’s, teaches self defense classes and has a passion to make jewelry. This brilliant student has received a merit scholarship to attend Yale in the fall. Eleven year-old actor Maxim Knight shares that he worked hard to become an actor, “I don’t take shortcuts, I give everything I have”. After participating in the Read Across America program, he wants other kids to participate in the program and to read for pleasure sharing that it opens up your imagination.
