General Synopsis for Episode #1106

In this episode of Career Day, viewers meet creative and passionate professionals who love what they do for a career. Hot Wheels Designer Kevin Cao uses his love of cars and an industrial design degree as he works on 3-4 Hot Wheel products at a time. He shares that it takes a couple of weeks to create original and replica cars. His advice to viewers is to draw a lot, keep your artwork so you can review your progress to build your skills and portfolio. NASA videographer Lori Losey's job is physically demanding as she videotapes aircraft activity and flight test programs while flying in the backseat of a jet. She has a background of video production, photography and imaginary that assists her in running the NASA TV station. Lori shares the best part of her job is working with aviation icons and recording aviation milestones for NASA. Bob Berger voice actor has played Porky Pig for over 20 years. He states that his job is to give a voice life from script to screen. To break into this competitive profession, he spent many years training as an actor and taking improvisation classes. He shares, "Entertaining people with characters people remember, is a pretty cool thing". Textile artist Leslie Rinchen-Wongmo learned the art of thangka in India. Thangka is a Tibetan word for a 2-dimensional piece of art that rolls up. It takes 5 months of drawing, designing and stitching to make each piece of art. She was encouraged by the Dali Lama to use the Tibetan technique to make images and forms to inspire others. Leslie tells the audience, "Follow the things you love and work hard to do the best you can, everything is possible".
