

JUSTICE

WITH JUDGE MABLEAN

JUSTICE with Judge Mablean

A former prosecuting attorney and long-time fan favorite, Judge Mablean Ephriam can bring a courtroom to laughter with her tell-it-like-it-is approach. She is well-known for playing the judge in Tyler Perry's Madea comedies and a seven year tenure on Divorce Court. Now she's in firm command with her Emmy® nominated, Justice with Judge Mablean where she combines her irresistible personality with over 20 years of legal wisdom.

Strictly Business: More reasons to air Justice with Judge Mablean

She's not just a TV judge – she's a nationally recognized brand. For seven years Judge Mablean ruled "Divorce Court," turning that series into a bona-fide hit. She then appeared in several feature films and published a book, Judge Mablean's Life Lessons: Tools For Weekly Living. Her return to TV on Justice with Judge Mablean has resonated with viewers, drawing in fans new and old and holding on to them – particularly women ages 25-54 – and beating out long-established shows in her time slot.
